

Free training for you and your employees!

ESF Business and Enterprise Skills

The aim of the Services is to support employers and employees of SMEs and micro businesses to improve their skills levels with the aim of helping them to develop and sustain their businesses.

What training is on offer?

This is a training offer which can be made up in a way to suit you, your organisation and your employees.

- Some training can be accredited and certified with an awarding body.
- Training can also be unaccredited such as bespoke training to suit your specific needs.
- We will work with you to arrange the best style of training to achieve your desired goals.

North Warwickshire & South Leicester College
